

The Honourable James "Jim" Stewart Edwards

&

Claude Couture, Ph.D.

Director of the Canadian Studies Institute in collaboration with

Marie Carrière, Ph.D.

Director of the Canadian Literature Centre invite you to

The "Magnifique" Wine and Cheese Fantasmagoria
a Canadian Studies Institute Benefit Event.

A French-style, six-course meal featuring 10 exclusive cheeses from la Maison Chaput, an artisan and family-owned dairy farm in Châteauguay, Quebec.

&

an outstanding selection of international wines from la Maison Altovin.

Patrick Chaput, head Maître-affineur of la Maison Chaput, and Mr. Ryan Everitt of la Maison Altovin will be commenting on their selections for each course of this magnificent meal.

The "Magnifique" Wine and Cheese Fantasmagoria

Date: Thursday, May 14th, 2009

Time: 6pm to 10pm

Location: Grand Salon of Pavillon Lacerte at Campus Saint-Jean

8406 – 91 Street

Edmonton, Alberta

Tickets: $200 per person or $1600 per table (Tax receipts of $85 per person or $680 per table)

Places are limited

RSVP by 4:30pm on May 6, 2009

Business casual

To book your table or place, please return the attached form or contact Ms. Marie-Claude Levert at 780-485-8635 or levert@ualberta.ca

This form is also available on the Canadian Studies Institute's website at <http://iec-csi.csj.ualberta.ca>

Program

Guests arrive 6:00pm

Opening remarks 6:30pm

First course served 6:45pm

First Course

Goat cheeses (three selections)
with fruit, French bread
White and red wine selections

Second Course

Flowered rind cheeses (two selections)
and accompaniment
Terrine of goat with three peppers
White and red wine selections

Palate Cleanser

Light salad

Musical Interlude

Third Course

Washed rind cheeses (three selections)
and accompaniment
White and red wine selections

Fourth Course

Blue and pressed rind cheeses (two selections)
and accompaniment
White and red wine selections

Dessert

Bernard Callebaut Chocolate
A dessert wine selection

The “Magnifique” Wine and Cheese Fantasmagoria

A Canadian Studies Institute
Benefit Event

